

Urban Craft MARKET

A curated market of handmade items, created by independent designers and makers.

Browse the work of 50+ artisans from Seattle's largest indie craft show at the Urban Craft Uprising Pavilion. These artists will once again join the show's popular Makers' Market section, a special showcase featuring fabulous handcrafted goods!

See these designs and so many others at the end of the 3600/3700 aisles.

Visit www.urbancraftuprising.com for more information on each of the companies highlighted.

URBAN CRAFT UPRISING ASKS: WHY BUY HANDMADE?

Handmade products carry a story with them, which makes the shopping experience much more unique and special. Quality handmade goods are also a vital and growing part of our economy, taking the “Made in the USA” tagline a step further.

When you carry handmade work in your store, you are providing a livelihood to these makers directly and in doing so you can engage with your own customers about the products on an even deeper level. Knowing who the maker is, where they live, and why they do the work they do makes that gift so much more special.

Your customer can walk away knowing that their money is helping small business people on multiple levels and that they're coming home with a unique item that was made with love and care.
